

5 reasons to join HARDI

We provide members the services, resources and tools to support business development and growth.

1 Community

We bring the HVACR distribution industry together through various networking events, association councils and other platforms to provide opportunities to build meaningful.

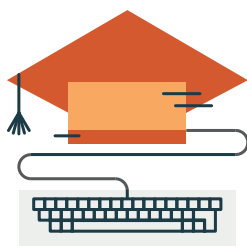

4 Advocacy

We retain a full-time government affairs team that advocates for our distributor members best interest on potential regulations, legislation or policies that affect their businesses and products they sell.

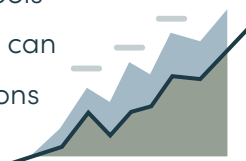

2 Education

We offer a wide range of online and in-person training programs that are designed to fit distributor's businesses or can be customized to fit your team's specific development needs.

3 Market Intelligence

We provide distributors HVACR industry specific benchmarking tools and market analysis services that can be used to make informed decisions for your business.

5 Resources

We have built a strong library of assets including blog posts, webinars, videos, white papers, and other resources that provide information and education to our various distributor members.

